

MTU Maintenance Canada
An MTU Aero Engines Company

INTERNAL JOB POSTING PERMANENT POSITION

Job Title: GTE Mechanic Minimum # of Positions:
2

Position Number: TP-09012

Department: Production

Posting Date: November 19 – November 27, 2009

Award Date: TBD Start Date : A.S.A.P.

Manager: Matthias Voss Posting #: 012 - 2009

SCOPE OF POSITION:

The GTE Mechanic position is expected to carry out disassembly, assembly, inspection and test stand work on aeronautical products, including Engine Maintenance Units, modules, engines, accessories, electrics, etc. Working independently, GTE Mechanic must implement work plans by following instructions from various sources.

TYPICAL DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Implement disassembly, inspection and assembly work plans by following instructions in the work plans, instructions in manuals and service bulletins, and Quality Standards instructions
2. Use test and measuring equipment to carry out their work
3. Perform preliminary inspections and define repairs required
4. Recognize and report defects on parts, assemblies, engines and accessories
5. Certifies the correctness of their work
6. Performs preliminary inspections

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS:

- Completed a recognized apprenticeship to CAMC standards (or to standards specified by airworthiness authorities) for Component Mechanic or equivalent qualifications (i.e. GTE Mechanic)
- Possess general knowledge of engine and/or components/accessories.
- Possess the ability and qualifications to carry out any work in his trade with the aid of engineering specifications, manuals or drawings.
- When assigned to the Balancing area, must possess good knowledge of theory and techniques of balancing.

Please submit Internal Application Form, with resume attached, to:
Kim.Warwick@mtucanada.com

No telephone calls please.