TO ALL MEMBERS OF DISTRICT LODGE 140, IAMAW ORGANIZER POSITIONS

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

District Lodge 140 employs two (2) organizers, respectively based in the Central region and the Eastern region. Currently, these positions are filled by Ian Morland in Toronto and Robert Savoie in Montreal, whose terms will expire on December 31, 2011.

Organizers' general duties and responsibilities are detailed under Article 13.13 (b) of District 140 bylaws as follows:

Organizers are responsible for initiating and directing campaigns and to provide resources, training and assistance to Local Lodge Organizing Committees. They must submit regular reports to the PDGC detailing their current campaigns and strategies. Organizers will submit an annual budget to the DL 140 Executive Board for approval and are responsible to ensure that approved funds are utilized in formal organizing campaigns. They will also develop strategies and action plans to raise the profile of the IAM & AW within our communities.

The hired applicants will be required to successfully fulfill assigned duties. An organizer is paid the same wages and benefits as those of a general chairperson.

The upcoming four-year term commences January 1, 2012. All members wishing to be considered for either position are requested to submit an application that includes a cover letter, a resume and a letter from their Local Lodge recording secretary attesting that they meet eligibility requirements. Eligibility requirements are in accordance with the IAMAW's Constitution and Article 5.07 of our bylaws.

All applications should be submitted to Chuck Atkinson, President and Directing General Chairperson, by June 24, 2011, at the following address: 2580 Drew Road, Suite 203
Mississauga, ON L4T 3M5

Decisions on hiring will be made by June 30, 2011.

In solidarity,

Randy Smith
Secretary-Treasurer
District Lodge 140, IAMAW
